1919 EXPOSITION FOR HONOLULU IS STRONGLY URGED

July Issue of Mid-Pacific Magazine to Be Filled With Interesting Articles

Why a Pan-Pacific Exposition should be held in Honolulu in 1919, and the efforts being expended to induce the states and countries bordering on the great ocean to send their exhibits to the Crossroads of the Pacific are graphically told in the July issue of the Mid-Pacific Magazine which is on sale at all newsstands today. The July issue is a masterpiece of the engraver's art, filled from cover to cover with many rare photographs of scenes in and about the San Diego Exposition.

The list of contents of the Mid-Pacific for next month is of unusual interest. No less a personage than Consul-General Alfred Winslow has submitted an article dealing with New Zealand at the present day. The story is replete with interesting statistics. Photographs of the Panama National Exposition, which is being held just outside the city of Panama, in the Canal Zone, together with an interesting article by the editor of the Pan-American Union Bulletin, tells of the wonderful work done by this little republic at a time when she was burdened with financial troubles, and although heavily handicapped by lack of funds, has inaugurated an exposition which vies with that at San Diego.

Two stories of local interest, one dealing with Kilauea, "the busiest volcano in the world," and the other of Haleakala, are also contained in the July issue of the Mid-Pacific Magazine. The relations between Japan and the United States, and what the Panama Canal has to do with these relations, are told by Soichiro Asano, president of Toyo Kisen Kaisha, in an extremely interesting article. "American Trade in China" is discussed by John H. Arnold, United States Commercial Attaché.

MAYOR SUGGESTS 'KALAKAUA DAY' BE CELEBRATED

Lane Urges That Birthday of Modern Ruler Be Made Gala Occasion

"Celebrate the birthday of King Kalakaua, the great man of modern Hawaii," suggests Mayor Lane, now that the celebration of Kamehameha Day is over.

"Kalakaua negotiated the first reciprocity treaty of the islands, giving the sugar industry a stable foundation," says the mayor. "He was the first monarch of the islands to tour the world and acquaint the peoples of other lands with Hawaii. He was the forerunner of the Promotion Committee. He founded the Hawaii of today."

He points out that Kalakaua's birthday comes at the beginning of the tourist season, November 18, and consequently its celebration would make for increased travel, giving the season a running start. "It is planned to call attention to the day throughout the mainland in the pineapple displays," he said. "Why not make the day a holiday in the islands that would be worth while coming here to observe? Prince Kuhio has held a series of miniature yacht races every year on that day. A more pretentious program could be arranged and other events held—events characteristic of the islands. I am sure that the Hawaiian societies would cooperate in any celebration that might be arranged."

He suggests that Queen Liliuokalani be consulted regarding the details of the program and that she be the honored guest of the city on that day. He waxed enthusiastic over the plan as he discussed it and promised to call it to the attention of the Kamehameha Day celebration committee at the next meeting. "It is a long time between Kamehameha Day and Carnival and the city could easily stand another period of merrymaking in the fall," he remarked.

SCOUT TROOPS HEAR TALE OF 'ABE' LINCOLN

Boy Scout troops of the city assembled in a Flag Day rally last night to hear Rev. George Laughton of Hilo speak on "Lessons for Scouts from the Life of Abraham Lincoln."

The meeting being held at the Mission Memorial.

Mr. Laughton paid high tribute to America's great men and said that the memory of their deeds takes the place of the shrines and temples of the old world.

"Lincoln stands before us as one of the earth's greatest sons," said the speaker, "one whose exploits proved to be a substantial part of that machinery by which God alters the moral order and secures the upward progress of the race."

"In him we see justice tempered with mercy, righteousness sweetened with kindness, a sense of liberty strengthened with a conviction that legitimate authority should be acknowledged. He was great in every sense of the word. His memory and his influence are among our richest possessions."

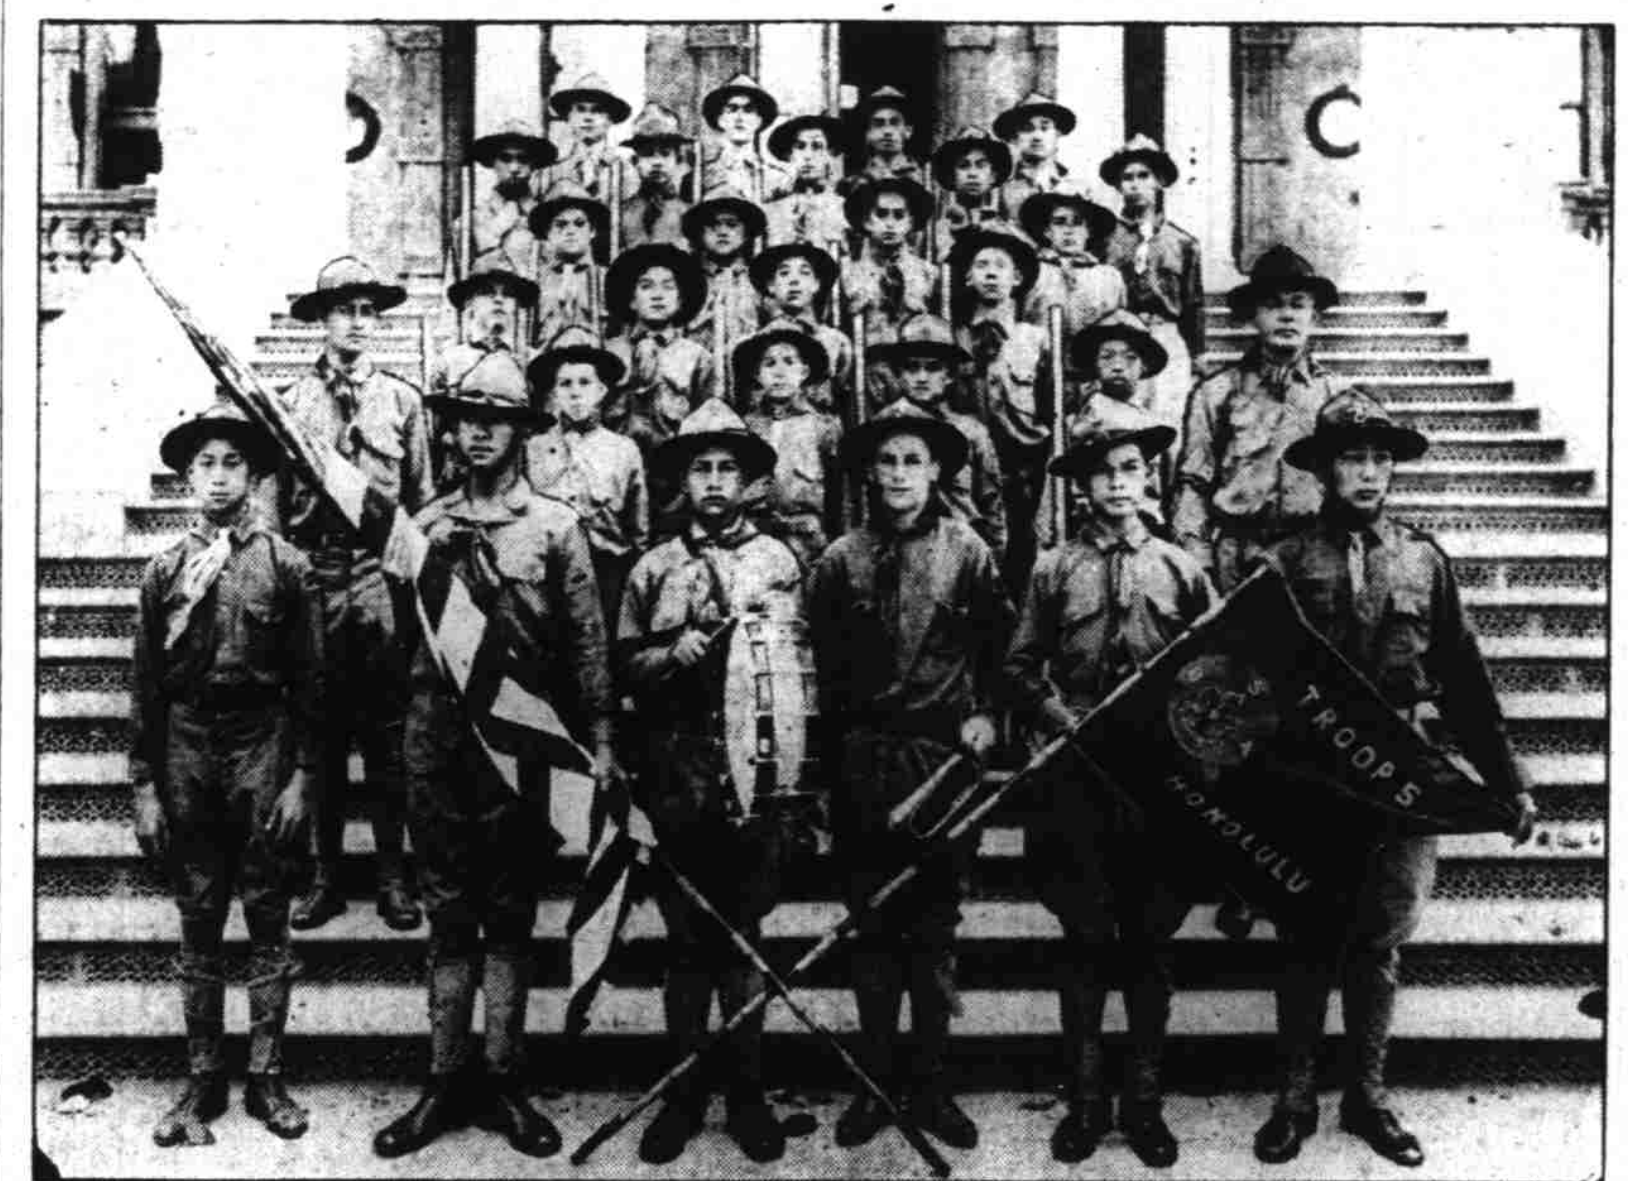

POLICE PLEASSED OVER RACE MEET

That part of the Kamehameha celebration which took place Saturday and Monday at Kapiolani Park was a big success as far as the police were concerned. Deputy Sheriff Julius W. Asch says the whole affair could not have been handled more systematically and with as little trouble, and talk on the streets is to that effect.

During the two days' activities not one fight at the park was seen by the police; there was only one case of intoxication and that was more humorous than disgusting; organized and pre-arranged gambling was practically nil, the police say, and there were no accidents. The closest approach to one was when a wheel on J. S. Grace's car broke as he was turning into Kalakaua avenue from a King street.

"Of course, there was some gambling," says Asch, "and there was no way we could keep interested spectators from making personal bets with each other. But these were not evident and professional betting was absolutely squelched by my men and Capt. McDuffie. The most wonderful thing to me about the whole affair is that thousands came to the park hour after hour clinging to street cars, with hundreds of autos darting past and around them, and not one was hurt. It was considerably different from the days when we used to go to the races here in mule cars."

LIVE NEWS OF SCOUT TROOPS

TROOP II.
At a meeting held on June 8, 1916, there were present 20 Scouts, officials 3, visitors 1.

Scoutmaster Bryan of Troop VIII paid us a visit and gave us a most interesting description of what he saw during his recent visit to the volcano of Mauna Loa, now in eruption.

On Monday, June 12, we were on duty in the morning at the ceremonies which took place at Kamehameha's statue and in the evening at the Palace grounds. In both cases we helped to keep back the crowd.

FOOK SING, Scribe.

TROOP V.
At the last meeting of the members of Troop V on Thursday night last, June 8, two teams were formed. They are the baseball and bicycle teams. Leo de Roo was elected captain of the baseball team, while Philip Zane was elected captain of the bicycle team. The baseball team consists of nine players and three substitute players. The bicycle team consists of eight riders.

Troop V consist of 33 boys, besides the scoutmaster. Four of the members of the troop are officials. They are: Charles Copp, senior troop leader; Walter Akana, junior troop leader; Charles Akana, troop secretary; James Holstein, troop scribe.

There are 17 first-class Scouts in Troop V. There are also 11 second-class Scouts and five Tenderfoot Scouts in the troop. Many of the second-class Scouts are rank of first class. They have passed almost all of the required tests in order to become first-class Scouts. The tenderfoot are also very studious. They are, most of them, on the verge of becoming second-class Scouts.

The troop secretary, Charles Akana, and Charles Copp, the senior leader, have just lately passed the tests for the public health merit badge. Charles Akana's treasury report reads that the troop has at least $53 in the Bank of Hawaii.

Discussion was had as to a camping trip which the boys wish to go on. They took up the subject of camping and decided to go into camp on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

TROOP VII.
Taking along the cheerful spirit from the Kakaako Mission 16 Boy Scouts left the headquarters at 5:15 o'clock on Friday afternoon, the 9th instant, for Christian church on Keolu street, Makiki. Several boys were stationed at the carline, two or three at the entrance of the church, and the rest in the church, where they enjoyed hearing the music and the lecture, besides having a good look around the hall. After the juvenile service and the bringing out of the chairs from the school we distributed coffee. The dishes, cups, spoons and forks were washed by the Kakaako Mission campfire girls and three other girls. After the chairs had been put back in the school and the papers and bread crumbs had been picked up we went in and joined the evening service. At 9:15 we marched home.

Monday, June 12.
Thirteen Scouts turned out for duty this morning until 9:30 a. m. Five were absent by reason of their misunderstanding the scoutmaster's verbal notice.

Whole troops turned out for duty at 7 p. m. and relieved at five minutes to 9.

T. MATSUO, Troop Scribe.

TROOP IX.
Troop IX regrets the departure of First Class Scout Jack MacKenzie for Seattle. Almost all of the troop's activities were assisted by him and he will be a source of information for the Seattle Scouts when he gets there. Just before he left he was sworn in as a first-class Scout of Troop IX. We all wish that he will have as much success with his future as he has had with our own Troop IX.

E. J. CRANE, Assistant Scribe.

TROOP IX NOTES.
Meeting was called to order at 7:30 o'clock by President Kuehn. Roll called by William Chang, scribe; 35 present, 6 absent, 1 visitor; 4 officials. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Assistant Scribe Crane. These were approved as read.

A challenge from Troop V for a bicycle race from Fort Shafter to Kapiolani Park was issued by Charles Copp. It was decided to think the matter over until the next meeting.

Scoutmaster Crane was put in charge of the troop on Wednesday evening, to participate in the Flag Day celebration.

The baseball report was read showing the following record: Six games won and one game lost, this one to the Honolulu School for Boys' first team. A tug-of-war was indulged in after the meeting and after this was over the boys went to their homes.

EZRA J. CRANE, Assistant Scribe, Troop IX.

TROOP XI.
After the roll call we had a drill of squad right and left and column left and right. We drilled from 2:15 p. m. to 3 p. m. The boys learned the drill very quickly.

There are six boys in the Eagle Patrol, with En Shui Dai as patrol leader, and eight boys in the Tiger Patrol, with Ah Yong Lin as patrol leader. En Shui Dai is a second-class Scout of the Eagle Patrol. The Tenderfoot Scouts of the Eagles are Ah Gun Lin, Hen Chan Ng, Nah Kanawa and Henry Lee.

The Tenderfoot Scouts of the Tigers are Ah Yong Lin, Yun Fook Ching and Arthur Ho.

The Eagles are ahead of the Tigers.

EN SHUI DAI, Scout Scribe.

TROOP XI.
Troop XI had its regular meeting last Wednesday and many of the candidates passed their tenderfoot requirements and one Scout passed his second class tests. Senior Leader Walter Akana will assist Mr. C. W. Baldwin in making the troop a success.

They were given their first drills and they made a good showing in the facings and the movements of the squads. The Eagle patrol is working hard and they expect to be the strongest in the school troop.

Several boys were sworn in as tenderfoot Scouts and from now on they will be called Scouts when addressed.

Ah Yong Lin and En Shui Dai have made up a yell which they will use from time to time. It is as follows:
Rima Rima Rai!
Jisa Jarga Za!
Kaahumano Troop XI!
Iron Cross Bar.

NEW TROOPS

TROOP XVII.
Troop XVII has been mustered in and they will be connected with St. Elizabeth's church. Rev. Mr. Merrill will be in command with Hiram, a Kakaala assistant scoutmaster, as his assistant. It will be entirely a Chinese troop and they will hold their meetings in the schoolhouse until a Scout house can be built. They will attend the next annual rally and will learn much from the older Scouts.

TROOP XVIII.

SCOUT ACTIVITIES

The Boy Scouts of the Honolulu area made a splendid showing on June 12 when they assisted in many ways. They were the leaders in the parade and played an important part in keeping the crowds back at the Judiciary square, where the Hawaiian societies were to stand.

The people were well handled and everybody enjoyed the morning. The troops deserve credit for what they have done, amongst them being Troop V, which also did splendid work on Memorial Day. They were the escorts of the Grand Army of the Republic. Troops 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 16 deserve as much credit, for they did good work and rendered first aid to the injured.

Marion Lord and Assistant Scoutmaster Fisher of Troop IV rendered first aid to a scout who had fainted and showed the public what the Boy Scouts could do with their knowledge of first aid.

Sam Woodward of Troop IX did not lose his nerves when he treated another Scout for the same thing, with the assistance of Scoutmaster Barry of Troop V. One of the Boy Scout's mottoes in first aid is to "keep cool."

After the oration the Scouts were marched to Merchant street, where they were dismissed to report for duty at 7 p. m.

At 7 p. m. all the Scouts were on hand and they policed the grounds of the pageant.

The bleachers not being up caused much trouble and the people were hard to manage. After trying to get the people to move back the pageant was postponed.

The Boy Scouts were dismissed and told to go home at 9 p. m.

The Pahokania school in name and name. There were 23 boys present at the first meeting and interest was shown by them all in the Scout movement. A scoutmaster is lacking for this troop and we hope to have one in the near future, although R. W. Duncan of Troop IX is working with the boys now. At the next meeting some of these boys may become scouts, if they pass their tenderfoot requirements. Knot tying and the Scout law will be the lesson for the next meeting to be held next Tuesday at 2 p. m. Some drilling and a game will probably be given also, in order to give the boys a little exercise and interest.

IMMUNITY OF CHINESE BANANAS EXPLAINED

Immunity of the Chinese bananas from infection by the Mediterranean fruit fly is explained in an article by Dr. E. A. Back and C. E. Pemberton in the May number of the Journal of Agricultural Research.

It declares that the immunity is "due to the fact that neither the egg nor the newly hatched larvae of the fruit fly can survive in the tannin laden peel of green, tough matured fruit. In fact the copiousness made flow of sap from egg punctures made by the fruit fly in unripe bananas renders the successful deposition of eggs in such fruits difficult and rare."

EYE OF X-RAY BORES THROUGH TEDDY'S THORAX

Physician's Endeavor to Diagnose Troublesome Malady: Colonel Looks Haggard

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
NEW YORK, N. Y., June 15.—Former President Roosevelt was given an examination under the X-ray machine last night, in order to determine the exact cause of a severe cough he has been suffering from for some time past. His physicians believe that it is due to damage done when he was thrown from his horse near Oyster Bay a year ago last May and sustained a broken rib. The broken bone is believed to have torn a muscle which it is feared has failed to heal.

The colonel is looking haggard and very much worn, as though feeling the strain of the past few weeks.

IN WAR ARENA

SLAVS CAPTURE IMMENSE BOOTY AND 120,000 MEN.

LONDON, Eng., June 15.—Petrograd last night issued a detailed account of the trophies the Russians have taken since the beginning of the present drive, 11 days ago.

Of the prisoners taken from the Germans and the Austrians, Petrograd says 1780 are unwounded officers. She has, she says, increased the number of men captured to 120,000.

Of booty she has captured 130 great guns of various calibers and 260 machine guns, besides a vast amount of munitions of war, shells, clothing, explosives, automobiles and machines of many different kinds.

Nowhere in the lone line from the Pripiet marshes, where the great offensive began, clear south, through the eastern edge of Galicia to the Bukovina, has there been any relaxation of the determined Russian assault, and "everywhere," adds the Russian official despatches, "the foes have been driven back, faster and faster."

TEUTON MERCHANT FLEET SCATTERED AND CRUISER SUNK.
COPENHAGEN, Denmark, June 15.—According to reports from various sources a fleet of Russian torpedo-boat destroyers attacked a fleet of 13 German merchant ships, under convoy of a Teutonic auxiliary cruiser, believed to have been the Koenig von Sachsen, in the Baltic Sea yesterday, and after sinking the cruiser and a number of destroyers, scattered the merchant fleet.

These reports are partially confirmed by an official statement from Berlin to the effect that "during the night of June 13 the German auxiliary cruiser Hersmann was attacked by four Russian destroyers in the night southeast of Stockholm, and after a courageous resistance, during which the cruiser was set on fire by the enemy's shells, she was blown up by her commander and crew. Her commander and most of the crew were saved."

LLOYD-GEORGE OFFERED KITCHENER'S POST.

LONDON, Eng., June 15.—Reports last night asserted the cabinet, after many conferences, has decided to offer the portfolio of war, held by Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, who was drowned when the cruiser Hampshire was sunk off the Orkney Islands, up to the time of his death, to Lloyd-George, minister of state for war munitions and former chancellor of the exchequer. It is expected that Lloyd-George will accept.

BRITISH NAVAL LOSSES TOTAL 600,000 TONS.

CARRANZA'S LACK OF ZEAL SUBJECT OF ANOTHER NOTE

State Officials Are Said to Be Drafting Epistle Charging Want of Cooperation

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15.—It was learned last night that the administration officials are planning to dispatch a note to the de facto government of Mexico soon, probably later in the week.

It was declared that the note will point out the lack of the cooperation by the Carranzistas with the American troops which was promised by the de facto government's representatives, and to other failures on the part of the Carranzistas to live up to their agreement.

A feeling is growing among the officials here that Carranza must soon dominate the situation in Mexico, or else face the alternative of confessing his inability of doing so.

It is understood that President Wilson has approved the plan of despatching the note and will give it his personal attention before it goes.
